Information We May Collect About You

The information we collect via our Web site is used to improve the content of RAMResults.com and advance the RAMP's mission.

For each visitor to our Web site, our Web server automatically recognizes only the user's domain name, but not the e-mail address (where possible).

We collect the domain name and internet protocol (IP) address of visitors to our Web site, aggregate information on what pages users access or visit, user-specific information on what pages users access or visit, and information volunteered by users, including from surveys, purchases and/or registrations. We also may collect the e-mail addresses of those who communicate with us via e-mail.

With respect to cookies: We use cookies for a number of purposes, including to administer our web site and to record session information, such as items that users add to their shopping cart and user-specific information on what pages users access or visit, and to ensure that visitors are not repeatedly sent the same banner ads.

How We May Use Information We Collect

The RAMP, its subsidiaries and affiliates may use your contact information to alert you to new information, products and services, events and other opportunities. From time to time, we may also make your contact information (but not your e-mail address) available to other reputable organizations whose products or services we think you might find interesting.

The RAMP maintains a directory of dentists that may include information you submit via our web site. This directory is shared with state and local dental societies. A subset of this directory, containing information about RAMP clients, is publicly accessible on RAMResults.com.

With respect to your e-mail address: We have instituted stringent reviews and opt-out capabilities to ensure that you do not receive unwanted e-mail from the RAMP. We will not give or sell your e-mail address to any entity outside the RAMP, its subsidiaries and affiliated entities (such as state and local dental societies).

A particular RAMP subsidiary or affiliate may have certain privacy policies even more stringent than noted here, which will be indicated on its specific portion of RAMPResults.com or its own site.

Your Rights

To help us keep our promise to respect your privacy, it is important when you wish to exercise your rights that you contact us via any of the means listed in the first section of this Privacy Policy.

If you do not want to receive e-mail, postal mail, telephone calls or faxes from us in the future, or if you do not want us to share your contact information in the manner described above, please provide us with your exact name, e-mail and postal addresses, phone and fax numbers. We will no longer use the information you so identify and secured via RAMPResults.com if that is your wish. While we will continue to share information we maintain about you with state and local dental societies, we will do our best to be sure any other specific contact information you so identify is removed from any list we share with other organizations.

On request we provide site visitors with access to all information that we may maintain about them, including communications that the visitor has directed to our site (e.g., e-mails, user inquiries), and contact information (e.g., name, address, phone number).

On request, we also offer visitors the ability to have inaccuracies corrected in contact information, financial information, unique identifiers, transaction information and communications that the visitor has directed to the site.

You may also contact us if you believe your information is being used for purposes other than those for which it was originally collected.

Children's Privacy

We are concerned about protecting children's privacy. We do not offer or sell products or services for purchase by children. If you are under 18 years of age, you may not purchase products or services from, and you should not provide information to, RAMPResults.com without the involvement of a parent or guardian. We do not collect online contact information without prior parental consent or parental notification, including an opportunity for the parent to prevent the use of the information and participation in the activity. Without prior parental consent, online information will be used only to respond directly to the child's request and will not be used for other purposes. Nor without prior parental consent do we collect personally identifiable offline contact information, distribute to third parties any personally identifiable information or give the ability to publicly post or otherwise distribute personally identifiable contact information. We do not entice by the prospect of a special game, prize or other activity, to divulge more information than is needed to participate in the activity.

More About Our Privacy Practices

With respect to other websites and servers: RAMPResults.com contains links to other websites. We have no control over and take no responsibility for the privacy practices or content of those sites.

With respect to security: We use industry-standard encryption technologies when transferring and receiving consumer data exchanged with our site. When we transfer and receive certain types of sensitive information such as financial or health information, we redirect visitors to a secure server and will notify visitors through a pop-up screen on our site. We have appropriate security measures in place in our physical facilities to protect against the loss, misuse or alteration of information that we have collected from you at our site. When users choose to make payments via credit cards, we submit the information needed to obtain payment to the appropriate clearinghouses. We do not store or reuse this credit card information unless you have given your authorization for us to do so. Note: Health information you may share via RAMPResults.com is neither private nor confidential and should be shared, if at all, only in accordance with applicable laws.

Changes, Comments, and Questions

If our information practices change at some time in the future we will post the policy changes to our Web site to notify you and allow you to opt out of new uses. The latest version of our Privacy Policy will always be available at RAMPResults.com. If you are concerned about how your information may be used, please check back at our Web site periodically.

We welcome your comments or questions about our Privacy Policy and privacy practices. If you feel that this site is not following its stated policy, please let us know.
